YOUNG ATTORNEY FORMERLY OF REELSVILLE IS MISSING FROM TERRE HAUTE HOME. DISAPPEARANCE IS MYSTER.

WELL KNOWN HERF

The local friends of Clarence C McCullough of Terre Haute are much concerned over his sudden die McCullough is the sor Thomas McCullough of neg-Reelsville and is well known in Greencastle. It is known that he had not prospered much in the practice of his profession in Terre Haute.

The following dispatch from Terro Haute gives the details of his disappearance:

"Friends of Clarence C McCul lough, a member of the local bar as sociation, are much concerned over his sudden disappearance from the city several days ago. Neither his wife nor relatives have any knowledge of his whereabouts, other than that he left home Sautrday evening to go down town to look after some legal business.

"That was the last seen of him but local people, who are somewhat interested in the young man's going away, have learned that a friend of his purchased a ticket for him at the boarded a train for the north. The blown clear of the engine. has gone to the far Northwest or to construction work.

Canada. "McCullough formerly lived at 1214 North Eighth street but the home is relatives. An effort to locate her was morning.

"Attorney James H. Caldwell, with whom the young attorney had desk room, said yesterday that McCullough had no reason to leave the city, although his law business had not been prosperous and he had experienced some financial depression the same, however, that befalls any young man at the beginning of his legal profession.

PAPERS TO BE FILED TO-NIGHT

DRY" FORCES WILL NOT TAKE

HAVE 150 SIGNERS, THEY SAY

The remonstrance asking that saoons be kept from the second ward of Greencastle will not be filed unti late this evening, possibly not unt shortly before midnight, according to leaders of the "drys." They say it is not necessary to file the remonstrance until midnight, if they de not desire to have it legally placed before the county commissioners at heir meeting Monday. The remon strance must be filed with the couny auditor the day before the meetng of the commissioners.

Reasons assigned for the delay fling the remonstrance are that the 'dry" workers desire to obtain all signatures possible before having the papers filed. They want a "safe majority," and therefore, they say, wil not file the papers until considerable more than half of the voters of the ward have attached their names to he remonstrance cards.

At am eeting of the "dry" forces in he city library Thursday night the campaign for today was formulted. The five teams of two men each started to work again early this morning interviewing voters. who Thursday were undecided wer again visited by the "drys," Juwhat success the "drys" had this morning they refused to give ou They are unanimous in saying, however, that more than a majority of the voters have signed.

The estimate of the vote of ward, since the redistricting or nance is in force, differs. The co census of opinion is, though, that 11 otal voting population of the secon ward is now between 295 and 300 One of the chief workers of the drys" said this morning that at the meeting Thursday night the name at least 150 voters were turned as having signed the cards. This number, providing none were throw out by the county commissioners would be a majority and sufficient ; make the remonstrance hold. The 1 tid not constitute a "safe majority. however, they thought and hence their activity this morning

The exact number of signers the remonstrance probably will no be known until after it is filed to night. One "dry" leader stated this fternoon that fully had been obtained.

History Professor Retains Attorneys to Defend Alleged Contract-Case of the Rev. Mr. Anderson.

DANVILLE. Ind., August 28 .- Attorneys for Professor W. N. Sher-REMONSTRANCE TO AUDITOR'S wood say that unless he is retained OFFICE UNTIL LATE, THEY as teacher of history at Central Normal College here, suit will be entere alleging breach of contract. They have served notice on the trustees o the college to the effect that their client intends to hold them to a contract alleged to have been made three months ago. The trouble dates back to friction between the Rev. W. E. Anderson, pastor of the Christian church here, and President Laird.

> Professor Sherwood became ember of the faculty in September 912. He has been popular with the tudents. Last May the Rev. W. E Anderson spoke at chapel, and Presi dent Laird understood one of hi statements to be a reflection or president's policy and refused the minister the privilege of speaking a chapel in the future. Professor Sherwood took the part of Mr. Anderson The difficulty between the presiden and minister was adjusted.

When the time came for re-em oloying teachers Professor Sher wood's name was not included. The students petitioned for his retention The trustee then offered Professo Sherwood a place on the faculty Then, later the trustees, in the ab sence of Mord Carter, of Indianapolis. and Otis E. Gulley, president of the board, withdrew the offer, saying it had not been accepted.

SURVIVORS OF COMPANY E, 18T. INDIANA HEAVY ARTILLERY, ELECT OFFICERS LATE YES. TERDAY EVENING.

OTHER OFFICERS ELECTED

At the conclusion of the business session of the survivors of Company E, 1st. Indiana Heavy Artillery, Thursday afternoon, Clay Reeves, who lives norhteast of this city was elected president; Sam Hice, of Indianapolis, vice president; John Kellar, secretary and treasurer, and John Hillis, assistant secretary and treasurer.

It was with regret that the vetrans of the company separated Thursday afternoon and departed for their respective homes. The reunions are the only times the men who served side by side during the strennous days of war, and who ate, slope ought and lived together, have to renew their acquaintances. During he days of reunions the incidents are gone over time and again, but never does a story become old for with each one there is a tie of comradeship and feeling in common that cannot be severed except by death.

Again next year, on the last Thursday in August, survivors of Company E, 1st Indiana Heavy Artillery, will gather near the first building of De-Pauw university; probably not as many as this year, but those who are left and are able to attend. The ranks of the Civil War veterans are rapidly becoming depleted. A few years hence and reunions of Civil War veterans will be but memories ..

Empire Waistline

Don't be afraid of those smart looking little coats with the Empire waisting. One might imagine that they are a new fashioned cut which is way beyond one's own skill as tailor. Actually, some of them are nothing but the ordinary straight-cut coats, and the illustration of the Empire style is produced simply by the addition of a band sewed on flatly above the waistline.

Lemon Cream

Stir two tablespoonfuls cornstarch wet in a little cold water, into one and one-half cupfuls of boiling water, add beaten yolks of three eggs, juice of one large lemon, one cupful of sugar. Cook five minutes, stir in whites of three eggs beaten stiff, beat until cold, pour into glasses and serve with whipped cream. This makes six good dishes.

Dyeing Hint

If you are going to dye any material at home, dissolve a pinch of bi-carbonate of soda in the water in which you mix the dye.

This will prevent the color from cracking and will insure its covering the material evenly.

If you cannot buy the shade you wish, it can easily be mixed. For instance, mix blue with pink to make violet, a little yellow with green to make moss color, black with ecru for yellow smoke, etc

Be sure to rinse the material very well with cold water before hanging to dry after dyeing. Press while Helen sank on a couch and looked up at Mrs. Stevens with troubled eyes.

"It's something I want to ask you something I want you to help me in.
And yet"—with an uncertain little

Mrs. Stevens, instantly interested, arrs. stevens, instantly interested, surmising some domestic trouble, drew up a chair beside her.

"Why, you know, dear," encouragingly, "if there's anything I can do."

"But this is so foolish. It's about that horseback ride Sunday. You know your husband asked if I could ride and Warren answered 'Oh, yes, ride and Warren answered 'Oh, Helen's quite a horsewoman.' I you remember?"

Mrs. Stevens nodded.

"Well—I'm—I'm not! I've nevebeen on a horse in my life but once and then I was terrified. But long ago before we were married I gave Warren to understand that I could ride—and I've had to keep up that pretense ever since. Of course, it must seem absurd that I haven't told him the truth but the way it all happened. seem absurd that I haven't told him feel so humiliated!

Helen hesitated a moment and ther Helen hesitated a moment and then went on, her eyes on the figure in the rug she was tracing with her parasol. "And one day, he said half teasingly, half in earnest: "What a little house kitten you are! There not a single outdoor thing you can do." I happened to be turning the leaves of a magazine—and there was a picture of a woman on horseback. Oh, I don't know what possessed me but I said: know what possessed me but I said: 'Oh, yes, I can ride! I used to ride a great deal and I really can ride very well.' And he answered: 'Good! That' fine. There's no better exercise!' Occourse, that was before we were ever engaged. He mentioned it severa

"We've never been where they've had saddle horses, so it really hasn't mattered until last night—when you suggested that we will hire horses from the stable here and go riding Sunday morning. I tried to get out of it by saying I had no habit, and you said you had two and would drive in tomorrow and bring down both. And when I protested at that, you said all I would need was a skirt, and they had those at the stable. So I couldn't get out of it. And Warren is so eager to go. He says he hasn't ridden for years, and it will do him more good than anything. And that if we can made a reasonable arrangement by the week, we'll both ride every morning "We've never been where they'v week, we'll both ride every morning before he goes into town. Now what shall I do? It seems to me I can't tel him after all these years."

Mrs. Stevens laughed comfortingly "Why, my dear, that's very simple This is only Wednesday. They've riding instructors out here, and all you've got to do is to take as man, lessons as you can before Sunday."

"But I couldn't learn in that time!"
"Of course you can. I've never had a lesson in my life. All you have to Helen could not remember the difference between the shuffle and the curb, nor the fingers between which to hold them. And when she went back to the hotel she tied some tape to the bedpost in imitation of the reins, in a vain effort to solve it out there.

Uses of Confectioner's Toilet Requisites Paper

One of the cleanest and cheapest of noney saving devices for housekeepmoney saving devices for housekeepers is confectioner's paper. It is thin, strong, and flexible, and impervious to dir and moisture. Housekeepers who take only once a week will find it iseful for wrapping up bread and take to keep them from drying. It is especially useful in the refrigerator instead of placing fresh meat or fish into a bowl or pan and covering with something about as large, wrap it in two thicknesses of this paper, prevent any absorption of moisture and any escape of odor, and save one-half as escape of odor, and save one-half a nuch space as was required formerly Leftovers of meat and the drier cooked regetables can be kept in this way without losing their natural moisture. This paper is the only thing, except glass or porcelain, that will keep sandwiches and other picnic dishes fresh and moist for several hours.

It always saves several times its cost in keeping food fresh and palable.

Paris, France.-Paris is by no neans a cheap town; some, indeed, find it expensive. One man, an American, has found it exorbitantly so. He remained but nineteen hours in lovely Paris, and his hotel bill amounted to 2,371f. 20c.!

And what is more, he settled the account because of the somewhat strange circumstances in which he became responsible for it. These were as follows:-Arriving at Gare Saint-Lazare by a boat train from Cherbourg, he did not claim his luggage at once, and it was sent to the left luggage office. Late the same afternoon he returned to get it out, The depot was almost deserted, but the American's kindly eye espied a young woman, attractive looking, a fellow country woman, who was sob-He did what any other man bing. would do. THE ACTRESS AND THE KAISER

Talk on Love at a Hunting Lodge Scandalizes the German Peers.

Berlin, Germany.-Germany is dided into two camps over the propriety of a causerie on "L'Amour" deivered recently by the French actress Jeanne Granier before the Kaiser at Prince Donnersmarck's hunting lodge

The text of the little lecture as it as leaked out shows that the actress alked freely on the delicate subject Among other things she maintained hat actresses were specially qualifie o teach kings how to love.

A controversy was aroused by a letter to a Rhineland paper deploring the new blow thus given to the monarchy and declaring that it must excite disgust in all virtuous German men and women. The writer, who takes the position that love is not a fit subject for jesting, angrily urges that Germans hold very different views from the French about it. "In one of the five books Moses edited the great editor gave more criminal news, and that more graphically, than to-day's newspapers would dare-for example, the reports of the disobedience of Adam, the drunkenness of Noah, the falsehoods of Abra ham, and the iniquity of the city of Sodom.

Uncle Sam's Employees.

Th- Government's employ list is growing by leaps and bounds. The grand total of all Federal employees at present is 370,065, as against 306,141 in 1907, an increase in the two years of about 64,000 persons, or about 20 per cent. There were 28,947 persons in the Federal employ in Washington on July 1 last; the annual pay roll for them is $31,541,225, an average of nearly $1,100 each. This total will be temporarily swollen by the addition of about 3,000 persons to the clerical force of the Census Bureau, adding nearly $5,000,000 in salaries during the year or more of their employment.

gccccccccccccccccccc NEW DIVORCE CURE.

Dr. Worcester Predicts Victory for

Emmanuel Movement. on.-The Rev. Dr. Elwood Worester, founder of the Emmanuel movement, is extending his work into many novel fields. He believes that the end of the divorce evil will be the eventual triumph of the new cure His method of mild mental suggestion, the introduction of happy thoughts among melancholy person and the removal of the causes for di vorce in the mental attitudes of husband and wife, is already proving effiracious, he says, in many threatened divorce cases that have come under his observation. One of the chief causes for divorce-the liquor habit is receiving especial attention througa his Boston club of alcoholics and his special cases.

Dr. Worcester says emphatically, however, that suggestion plays only a small part in the Emmanuel treatment. Appeals to conscience and reason and the better nature of patients have as much to do with the cures as anything else.

LIGHTNING SINCE MAY

The heavy losses suffered from ighthing are illustrated in the reports made to the state fire marshal during the week of Aug. 8.

During that week 61 fires cause by lightning have already been re ported. The loss was $52,932.

Most of these fires occurred or Friday, Aug. 8, when a storm swept the northern part of the state. At this time 48 fires, most of them caused by lightning on Aug. 8, have been reported and others are still to come in. The total number of fires for the week was 132, nearly one-half of then being caused by lightning. Of the 61 fires caused by lightning, 54 of the buildings struck were reported as being "not rodded." On the remaining seven there was no report as to the lightning rods.

Nearly $500 000.

The tremendous property losse ecasioned by lightning are made more impressible by the fire marshal' statistics covering the period from May 15 to July 31. During that time there have been 453 fires caused by lightning, with a total property loof nearly a half million of dollars The figures follows:

	Fires	Loss

FROSTY NIGHTS COMING SOON.

Parson Hicks Deals Out Dope for September.

In his weather forecast for September Parson Hicks carefully refuses the promise of a single pretty fall day and of what is to be expected.

A reactionary storm period will be n full strength on the 1st. 2nd and rd. Equinoctial storms, attended by treat electrical disturbances and by widespread earthquake convulsions will very probably occur at this time The first day of September, and days next to it will be a critical story and seismic center. Change to much ooler weather, with frosty nights the northern lattiudes, need not be surprising from about the 2nd to 6th with daily progression from the orthwest to the southeastward.

A regular storm period is at it enter on the 8th, covering the 6th o 12th. Northern lights, electrical torms, earth currents, volcanic unrest and all related phenomena are nost probable about this time. If the barometer fluctuates rapidly, fin ally falling to low readings, any time n or about this period, such may be egarded as evidence of violent winds hurricanes and possibly tornadoes These disturbances will probably culminate on the 9th 10th, 11th and 12th. Cool nights with frost in the northwest will follow this period preading eastwardly over the cour try from about the 10th to the 11th

A reactionary storm reriod will bring storms and other disturbances on and touching the 14th, 15th and the 16th

This period is also pear the center of the earth's autumnal equinox and at the entrance of the mercury equi-Earthquakes and storms will reach a marked crisis within sixty lours of sunset on the 15th. Another righ barometer, and change to ver much cooler, with frost from northward, will follow on the westerr banks of these storms. A regular storm period involves 17th and 22nd. Equinoctial storms of wide sweep and violent force ar more than probable at this time Pomeet tropical storms from equator! regions at this time, resulting in tor nadic storms over central to the outhern states, and change to hie' arometer, very much cooler and to rosts in many states as a sequel to these equinoctial convulsions.

A reactionary storm period is cen tral on the 25th. 26th and 27th. There are strong probabilities of a snell of hreatening, stormy weather extend ng over several days, and perhar filling the gap between the regular storm periods immediately before ar after these dates. We calculate that equatorial or equinoctial storms an hurricanes will be more numerou and more severe during this autumnal period than common

There will be danger of frosts nights in the high barometer areas that follow on the heels of storr areas, and danger of frosts at these times will be in proportion to the lowness of barometer readings at tending the storms. The 29th and 30th belong to a regular storm period central in October. On and about the 29th, extending from about the 25th to October 5th, Sea coasts not ele vated well above sea level, in al' parts of the globe especially expose to equinoctial storms and tidal wave will be subject to such dangers a this time

Earle Bunten, of Fillmore, son County Commissioner J. B. Buntreturned home from Indianapo! Thursday, where Dr. D. W. Layma assisted by Dr. C. L. Amick, perfornasal growth.

SIGNS OF STRIKE DISAPPEAR.

Louisville Limiteds Only Cars Not Running Regularly.

Complete service on the Martinsville line of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction Comany was resumed today, and it was said that all but one or two of the strikers on the line were back at vork. Complete freight service was resumed on the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern traction line, Part service was restored on the through ars to Louisville, two limited cars for Louisville having left the trace tion and terminal station early in the day. With the exception of the Louisville limiteds, the service of the various lines was complete, and there was no other indication apparent of the strike of the local organization of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Emolyoes. Four of the strikers of the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern Traction Company returned to work.

ccording to officials of the company. Rezin Orr, international treasurer f the Amalgamated association, left Indianapolis for Detroit Wednesday evening to attend a meeting of the ceneral executive board preliminary to the national convention of the association, which will be held at Salt Lake City.
